A. PERSONAL REFLECTION: What will you do differently after participating in this training?

Really get into the stories.

Incorporate more stories into daily times.

Look at all situations differently.

Help children push their imagination button more.

Work on better storytelling.

Connect with the children more before reading the stories.

Telling stories in a more enthusiastic way, connecting the story with the children.

Rlate more personal stories to books. Let the kids share more.

Do the soties a little different. Get the children more involved with the stories.

Tell about sisters and growing up.

Bring stories (marbles) from my life.

Act out stories more.

Awesome!

Think before act and speak (shoot marbles) keep trying with difficult children.

Get excited, move around, be in the story. Shoot my marbles! Share my friendlies.

I will share more of me with stories that I tell.

Telling stories with a purpose.

I will for sure remember the marble theme. For kids, it is important to put seed in mind.

Tell more personal stories. Try harder to connect with each child.

I will share move stories with the children through everyday life events.

Shoot marbles.

Tell more stories to the children while subbing.

She was a wonderful storyteller.

Push their imagination button. Tell it - Read It - Show it!

Connect with my kiddos more when reading their stories.

Share stories. Never give up.

I will share and shoot and make more connections.

Remember my personal stories to share and make connections.

Work more on telling stories than just reading books.

Re-evaluate what I do and how I do things.

I would like to be able to tell stories like Shelly. She is amazing!!

Really get into the stories. She was fun!

Tell more stories.

Use imagination more.

Tell stories differently.

Ryan's story was amazing! Very convicting! During my highly stressful days, I will remember Ryan's story and it will help me focus & continue to "shoot" my marbles.

I will be more active in my storytelling.

I loved this. I want to be more creative with my stories.

Be more aware of the connections stories make!

Try to keep in mind that in the end it all works out.

Be more committed to my job and other staff.

Continue to shoot marbles.

Great class and imagination!

Using the materials learned a lot for my day care.

I enjoyed learning the different ways to tell the stories and how kids connected. I'll tell stores more "actively."

Use the marble concept. Use my stories. Be positive.

Try to tell more stories - draw on personal experiences.

Make better connections with people and children.

Be calm with children.

More objects to my story telling.

Try to relate more from my life to the story to make it connect with the children.

Make a connection between stories and life situations.

Tell more stories instead of just reading them.

Tell more stories.
